

Carve the cat's eyes first, then carve out the background pumpkin into several smaller sections to make it easier to remove this area without breaking the cat's body or tail.