

The Vigil

Carve out the cat's eyes first, then the small area above the branch. Carefully carve out the background areas into several smaller sections to make it easier to remove the pieces without breaking your design.